

Sample Interview Questionnaire

Your life experience has been quite diverse. Let's take a look at a few of the main areas where you've focused. Your first degree and career were in hospitality. Why did you gravitate towards that, and what did it teach you?

How about your own travels? You seem to have been to many countries and seen much of the United States. Why would you say that travel is a valuable thing to help shape one's awareness and perspective?

How about your subsequent degree in acting and screenwriting, what did you learn there?

You have been a musician most of your life, how has that enhanced every other aspect of your life?

You share that you have always had a passion for people, can you explain what you mean by that?

How did your concept of "Secret Powers of Love" come to be?

How is your work different than other self-help and self-awareness presentations?

Can anyone participate and gain from your presentations or does it take a special type of individual to understand your approach?
